How to reach Paris from the airports

---

Arriving from Charles de Gaulle airport (Roissy):

You have 2 choices when arriving to CDG airport:

- 1) Roissy Bus: Probably the easiest way to reach Paris if you are not arriving during the rush hour (8-10am/17-20pm). Cost: 10€. The bus will permit you to reach Opéra metro station.
- 2) RER B-train: It takes about 45min to reach the center of Paris. Cost: 9,50€. Several stops in Paris : Gare du Nord, Châtelet-Les Halles, St Michel-Notre Dame, Luxembourg... Pay attention to follow the right direction (St Remy-les-Chevreuses/Robinson) towards Paris.

Arriving from Orly airport:

Again, you can choose to take a bus or RER-train.

- 1) Orlybus: Very easy. Cost: 7,2€. The bus will permit you to reach Denfert Rochereau metro station in 30min and from there you can join Paris city centre by the metro line 4 (direction Porte de Clignancourt).
- 2) Orlyval + RER B: If you wish to take the RER, first to take the Orlyval shuttle to join the RER B (direction Mitry-Clay/ CDG Airport). This is fairly fast way to join Paris (around 45min). The joint ticket costs 10,5€

Attention! Cheaper metro tickets:

If you will take the metro several times, it is cheaper to buy a book of tickets (carnet): 10 tickets/ 13,30€, instead of 1,7€/ticket.
