A project-symbolic poem presentation by one of the French representatives of the E-Seniors Association, Paris (FR) at the 2nd Transnational Partner's Meeting in Maltepe, Istanbul (TR) of the Grundtvig Partnership Project, "Never Too Late For European Synergy" (N2L84ES), within the framework of the European Union's Lifelong Learning Programme. For further information, please consult the official project website: <http://sarges1966.wix.com/n3l8es>. The poem recitation is based upon the following lines from "Morituri Salutamus: Poem for the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Class of 1825 in Bowdoin College" (by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow):

It is too late! Ah, nothing is too late
Till the tired heart shall cease to palpitate.
[...] Something remains for us to do or dare;
Even the oldest tree some fruit may bear;
[...] For age is opportunity no less
Than youth itself, though in another dress,
And as the evening twilight fades away
The sky is filled with stars, invisible by day.

ADDENDUM

Comic-relief addition to poem:

You're a poet and don't know it,

but your feet sure do show it —

'cause they're "long fellows"!
