Comments: Social programme as o.k.; unfortunately we left the festival and went to concert of a friend of Guy; this was not the best idea as we missed some parts of the festival.

- It was a pity that most of the time partners did not spend their time together but in groups due to organisation of social programme. Unfortunatley I did not have the feeling to be as welcome in Paris as to our meetings in Sofia, Innsbruck and Adana.

Suggestion for the next meeting:

- Everything was planned much earlier. That's why we are very sure about the meeting. This is very good for us.
- Ayse, please let me know if there is anything expressed by the partners for the next meeting in Germany. We are working on meeting everybody's wishes and needs. Thank you!
- I am expecting that the participants learn before the meeting a few words in English (this is also part of the project);
just the daily phrases would be helpful!

Some comments written by some partners are below:

- I liked the very typical French atmosphere at the festival on the street; great bands, excellent food); Thank you Guy for the invitation to dinner on our second evening!!
we missed some other French participants beside Guy (in order to do an intercultural exchange)!
- It could have been helpful if the host gave more information about travel from the airport to Paris center and travel within Paris. For foreigners it is not really obvious which train to choose. I missed additional information for the journey like weather conditions, strike in Paris, clothing recommendations.

Comments on the event

German partner

When any kind of musician plays music on the streets in Germany, they usually want money for it. It was great watching bands on streets without having to pay for it.

I actually liked the band in the cellar, especially since they did not take themselves too serious. The location was not so good (hot, small, tight, expensive).

Strange:

Typical French breakfast: very poor (Café, Croissant, Confiture) but still tasty.

- Everything in Paris is pretty expensive.

Bulgarian partner

-The event was very interesting. The music at the Jazz Club was somehow strange but we enjoyed it. We are used to live music in Bulgaria and we love it.

- Paris is impressive and the event was nice. There are a lot of places we have visited. It is my first time in Paris and you will find culture all around. We didn't stay very long at the jazz festival but anyway the music was gut. The place was quite small and you may find larger places in Bulgaria. We do have places with live music: jazz, hard rock places are very popular. We have also the so called piano bars with live music of any kind.

Austrian Partner

- Excellent bands – very typical French style
- great atmosphere – open air was excellent
- non touristic festival (most of the guests of the festival have been French)
- very relaxing but great organised

Turkish Partner

- My impression for the jazz festival is amazing. I like this festival while walking through the street you have a chance to listen to different music. If you like it you can take a sit and listen. I have never been this kind of festival. All the people seem very happy. We have tasted typical French meal meat with potato. The cooking style is different from us. In our country we prefer well cooked. Then we have tasted different kind of French cheese and drinks. They were excellent.
- This street festival was excellent. Personally I like it. While walking in the street, you can see many kinds of French music. It was fascinating. The French cheese and drinks are so tasty. In our country I have never meet this kind of festival. This idea is very nice to do in our city.
- I like this festival and French music. It was really different from us.

Many Thanks
